- Wrote contextual UX microcopy and user flows for banking portals, removing product navigation friction and cutting client drop-off rates by 40%.
- Engineered localized presentation decks and regional marketing collateral to clear structural bottlenecks during geo-specific product distribution plays.

Sutherland | Associate Professional Research Analyst

Mar 2021 - Dec 2021

- Scripted educational walkthrough videos and self-service documentation workflows for Amazon's product ecosystem, successfully reducing customer product return rates by 35%.
- Authored clean technical documentation and knowledge base assets to scale merchant onboarding efficiency and reduce customer support ticket loads.

Self-Employed | Freelance Content Writer

Jun 2019 - Jan 2021

- Executed deep-dive business blogs, technical case studies, and native social media content systems calibrated strictly to unique client brand guides and target audience constraints.

WHY HIRE ME IN THE AGE OF AI?

While AI automates predictable, structural tasks, I bring a distinct human flavor: taste, judgment, and an uncompromising standard for quality content shaped by years of being an avid reader and writer. My ability to connect unrelated ideas into a cohesive, persuasive business narrative gives me an unfair advantage over AI tools - no matter how fast LLMs continue to evolve.

EDUCATION

B.Tech, Electronics & Communication Engineering – B.S. Abdur Rahman Crescent Institute of Science and Technology, Chennai (2019)

COURSES

- AEO Fundamentals & Implementing AEO with HubSpot (currently pursuing)
- Perplexity AI Business Fellowship (2025)
- Google Analytics for Beginners - Google

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Star Performer of the Quarter (3x) – M2P Fintech Design Team (Q1'22, Q3 & Q4'22)

BEYOND PROFESSIONAL LIFE

When I'm not wearing my marketing cap to ideate creative campaigns and going an extra mile to persuade B2B buyers, I read.

I immerse myself in English and Tamil literature novels to the point where I have founded a silent reading community that turned into a movement in a locality in South Chennai and got featured in The Hindu, The Times of India, Gulf Today, & DTNEXT.
